

SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—MAY
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1914

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

I little care for surf or strand
It is my sole delight
To seek the writing table and Industriously write.
When at a swell hotel I room
At six a day or more,
I like to write to people whom
I never knew before.

Patent Colonial Oxford $3.00. Merz Bros.

Farmers, Look!

The important feature of any transplanter is the valve mechanism. Examine the Improved Tiger. The valve on this transplanter has a flat rubber cut-off and 1 1/4 hose that insures plenty of water. The Tiger makes the farmer absolutely independent of the weather. He sets his tobacco when he gets his ground ready and it makes no difference whether the soil is dry or moist. This machine was designed primarily for the purpose of enabling the farmer to transplant, irrespective of seasonable conditions. At the same time, it is constructed to make planting more rapid and accurate. You can't go wrong in buying a Tiger. They will "deliver the goods." If you are too busy to come in, phone us and we will give you the names of some of your neighbors who are delighted Tiger owners.

THE BLESSED RAIN

Last Night's Downpour "Worth a Million Dollars and It Didn't Cost a Cent."

The first good, "cold soaking" rain since Robinson's circus blew into Maysville four weeks ago, visited this vicinity last evening about 8 o'clock and for over half an hour the down-pour made the ground green and the longest faced old hayseeds grin with satisfaction. Believe me, it was some rain and filled a long-felt want, besides making the much-needed tobacco planting season which Mason County has been praying for.

This morning over a thousand people are sticking tobacco plants in the moist earth in Mason County alone. It also helped to save the hay crop. Now everything out of doors in the growing line is on the jump for the bumper finish at "Harvest Home" time.

"JEFFERSON FLOUR"

To Flash Forth On the Largest Electric Sign in Maysville.

The M. C. Russell building, corner Third and Market streets, is to have placed on its corner, the largest and most costly electric sign in this city and the first of such signs in Third street.

"JEFFERSON FLOUR" will compose the two words of the sign, the first word being displayed vertically and the second word horizontally. The huge sign will contain over 250 lights and will cost about $850. "Hill's Electric Shop" people are installing same.

When it is erected and lighted the big blaze will change the night scene at Third and Market.

FALLEN POLE

Strikes Street Car Injuring Several People—Wind Caused Almost Serious Accident.

Last night about 8:30 o'clock just as motorman Stewart reached the Dietrich Green House he had a peculiar accident. A pole bearing the current wire had been blown out of its position. The trolley caught the wire, caused the pole to swing to the rear of the car where it entered and passed diagonally up through the roof. A Mr. E. A. Ellis, of Richmond, Ind., stockman, got his right leg skinned and bruised; Mr. Roy Cochran had one of his fingers smashed. Mr. H. L. Walsh and little daughter narrowly escaped being hit by the pole as it swept to the rear. Mr. Beecher Holiday and his crew were soon on the scene and had the damages repaired.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

Unless prevented by rain, the Baptist Sunday School will spend tomorrow at Owens' woods, on the Clark's Run road. There will be plenty of everything for the comfort of all who attend—especially has the eats and amusement committee been active. All those who are going in the morning will meet at the Baptist Church by 7:30 a. m. Free transportation.

Stylish Sunshades

We chose the old-fashioned word sunshade because it so aptly describes the comfort you'll secure beneath the shelter of these pretty parasols. In addition you'll have protection for complexion and hat at such a trifling outlay—$1.97. Parasols that couldn't be duplicated for $2.50 to $4. A manufacturer's samples.

Beautiful designs. No two parasols alike, you can count on something distinctive.

Colors to harmonize perfectly with any costume. See display in East Window.
